"TIPS from your TIP" - Some thoughts from our Transitional Interim Pastor, Bro. Mike Dawson

Spring Hill First Family, I want to say thank you for the blessing of spending CHRISTmas Eve and New Year's Eve worshipping the Lord Jesus with you! I was personally very moved in seeing how focused you were in coming to the Lord's Table this past Sunday morning. Standing behind the Table I looked into your faces—children, teens, young adults, middle-agers and senior adults alike—noted how serious each one was about taking the Bread and the Cup. Your genuine spirit made the service one I'll long remember!

Since Bro. J C Christian's retirement and final service here on Dec. 10, the next three Sundays were sort of a 'blur.' The wonderful CHRISTmas musical worship on Dec. 17, then the beautiful CHRISTmas Eve services on the 24th, followed by last Sunday's gathering at 'The Old Rugged Cross' - each service was uniquely touched by God's Spirit. But each of the three weeks was also somewhat 'abnormal.' Now we really and truly get underway on the interim period.

This Sunday we return to our 'normal' schedule of Bible study classes at 9, and worship services at 10 am & 6 PM. My message Sunday morning is on "First Things First," from Mark 1:14-15, the first recorded sermon of our Lord Jesus. It's a 'short' sermon, but Jesus gives us the things we must clearly get prioritized as a church during this interim time. Sunday night I plan to preach on the first seven days, and I'll give you a formula for memorizing what God did each Day of Creation; after Sunday night, I think you'll be able to easily remember what happened on which day!

Invite someone to come with you Sunday; let's fill the house! Pray for God's Spirit to be here in power!
